

PRIVACY NOTICE

Website Stadlerrail.com

Stadler is a system provider of mobility solutions in railway vehicle construction, service and signalling technology. This Privacy Notice informs you about the processing of personal data by the company of the Stadler Group listed below (hereinafter "Stadler", "we" or "us") in connection with the use of this website.

1. Controller and data protection officer

The controller responsible for data processing is:

Stadler Rail AG
Ernst-Stadler-Strasse 1
9565 Bussnang
Tel: +41 71 626 21 20

The data protection officer for the Stadler Group can be reached at:
compliance@stadlerrail.com

2. Data processed

We process personal data that you provide to us voluntarily. Certain data is also collected automatically when you visit our website.

If you contact us via the contact form, we process the data you enter into the input mask, so in particular salutation, first name, last name, address, postcode and city, country and telephone number as well as your email address and your individual message.

When you visit our website, our system automatically collects certain technical information, including your IP address, details of your browser and operating system, the date and time of your visit, the name and URL of the page accessed.

3. Purpose of data processing and its legal basis

In principle, we only process personal data insofar as we require the data for the purposes of our business relationships, in particular for entering into and performing contracts with customers, suppliers, etc. We also process your personal data when you contact us directly so that we can process your enquiry and, if appropriate, to carry out pre-contractual measures.

Furthermore we process personal data to comply with our legal obligations at home and abroad, to protect legal claims and to defend ourselves in legal disputes or official proceedings, to comply with compliance and other internal guidelines, to conduct internal investigations and for internal administrative purposes.

In certain cases, we also process personal data if we can demonstrate that we have a legitimate interest in doing so.

In particular, the following data processing purposes should be mentioned:

- To provide our website
- To improve our online offer

- To analyse and evaluate website activities
- To monitor and improve system security

If you have given us your consent to use your data, we will use your data for the purpose stated when obtaining it and to the extent of that consent. In this case, you can revoke your consent to data processing at any time. However, this revocation has no influence on any data processing that has already taken place. Your consent can be edited at the following link: Privacy Notice - Stadler \(stadlerrail.com\).

4. Cookies

Cookies are small text files, which are sent to your computer and then saved by your browser. They are designed to make our offerings more user-friendly, effective and secure. Most of the cookies used are only used for the respective session and are then automatically deleted when you leave our website (session cookies). Other cookies remain stored on your device until you delete them. These cookies enable us to recognize your browser when you revisit our website (permanent cookies). You can configure your browser so that you are notified when a cookie is received and so that it accepts cookies only in selected cases, or so that it blocks cookies in certain or in all cases, or so that it automatically deletes cookies when it is closed. If you deactivate cookies, some of the functions of our website may not be available.

Certain cookies are placed by us, while others are placed by the contractual partners with whom we work.

For more information about which cookies are used, please see our Cookie Notice at Privacy Notice - Stadler \(stadlerrail.com\). There you will also find the link for changing the cookie settings.

By following the links set out below, you can find out how to manage the cookies of the most important browsers (including how to deactivate them):

5. Analysis services: Matomo

Depending on your consent, we use the web analytics service Matomo on our website. This is a service provided by InnoCraft Ltd, 7 Waterloo Quay PO625, 6140 Wellington, New Zealand. Through the use of Matomo, we process, among other things, the following data from you: shortened IP address, pages / URLs accessed, time of access and duration of stay, referrer URL, details of your browser, region/country (without the ability to identify a specific address / household), screen resolution, downloaded files, links to external domains. The data collected by us through the Matomo service is used exclusively for statistical purposes and to improve the usability of the website.

6. Use of YouTube

We have integrated YouTube videos in our online offerings. These are saved at www.YouTube.com and can be played directly from our website. These are all in the "expanded data protection" mode, i.e. no data about you as a user will be transferred to YouTube if you do not play the videos. Only if you play the videos, the data listed in the next paragraph will be transferred. We have no influence on this data transfer.

Through your visit to the website, YouTube will be informed that you have opened on the corresponding subpage of our website. This will happen regardless of whether you are logged in to a YouTube user account, or if there is no user account at all. If you are logged into Google, your data will be assigned directly to your account. If you do not want your data to be immediately assigned to your account, you must log out before activating the button. YouTube will store the data as a user profile and use it for promotional purposes, market research and/or the user-friendly design of its website. Such assessments are primarily made to provide tailored advertisements (even for users who are not logged in) and to inform other users in the social network about your activities on our website. You have the right to object to the creation of a user profile, however, you must address these objections to YouTube.

You can find out more about the purpose and scope of the data collection and its processing by YouTube in the data protection declaration. You will find more information about your rights and possible settings to protect your privacy: <http://www.google.de/intl/en/policies/privacy>.

7. Other third-party software

We do not use other third-party software or tools such as Google's remarketing or similar audience functions. Nor do we use Google AdWords conversion tracking or Google AdSense and the like. Furthermore, we do not use any social media plug-ins such as, for example, Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.

8. Transfer of data to third parties

We will only disclose your data to a third party if this is necessary to achieve the purposes mentioned or to protect our legitimate interests or to comply with the law. The third parties with whom we share data, or who may have access to data through their services, include, but are not limited to:

- Companies in the Stadler Group (including Group companies outside of the EEA); a list of these companies can be accessed by clicking on the following link: www.stadlerrail.com/en/about-us/locations/
- Service providers, in particular providers of IT services, hosting, support in Switzerland and in Europe

If and insofar as we use a third party for the performance of a contract with you, your personal data will only be disclosed to the third party to the extent that this is necessary for the corresponding performance.

9. Retention period

We retain your data only for as long as it is necessary to achieve the purpose for which it was obtained. You can find the storage period of the respective cookies here: Privacy Notice - Stadler \(stadlerrail.com\)

10. Your rights

To the extent provided for by applicable data protection law, you have the right to request access to your personal data, to require that your data be rectified or completed, to have processing restricted or data erased, and to receive your data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format in order to transmit this data to another location (data portability).

Furthermore, you may object to the processing of your personal data if we are not obliged to process it for the performance of a contractual or legal obligation. If processing of your data is based on your consent, you may, at any time, withdraw it. Please note that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of previous processing.

Your rights may be restricted, in particular if the exercise of your rights conflicts with the performance of our legal or contractual obligations, or where we can demonstrate a legitimate interest in processing, or the rights of third parties would be infringed.

If you would like to exercise your rights, please use the address in clause 1 to contact us.

If you believe your rights have been infringed, you may, at any time, lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority. In Switzerland, this is the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (<https://www.edoeb.admin.ch/edoeb/en/home.html>).

11. Data security

We would like to point out that, in spite of our use of licensed SSL encryption on our website (see the SSL certificate in the top left-hand corner of your browser), where data is transferred via the Internet security gaps may exist outside our web server, for example, at nodes in international networks.

12. Data belonging to third parties

If you transfer personal data belonging to a third party to us, please ensure that you are authorized to do so, that the data subject knows about the transfer and is familiar with this Privacy Notice, and that the data transferred is correct.

13. Changes

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Notice at any time. The current version of this Privacy Notice is published on our website at Privacy Notice - Stadler \(stadlerrail.com\).

14. Disclaimer

Our website provides general information about the Stadler Group companies and their products and services. This information is to serve as an introduction for interested persons. However, all information on this website is provided without guarantee. A guarantee or liability in any form, e.g. for the correctness, reliability, completeness and validity of the information, is expressly excluded. Please do not hesitate to contact us directly using the details provided in clause 1 should you require further and, in particular, binding information.

15. Links to other websites

This website contains links to other websites. We have no influence over the design or content of linked websites and assume no liability for their content. The respective providers are responsible for the content of the information made available on such websites.

16. Copyright

Stadler permits users of this website to duplicate or print out its content for their own personal use. Only content in the News section of the website may be duplicated or printed for the purposes of publication. Stadler must be specified as the copyright holder in all published materials containing this content. Stadler retains all other copyrights and intellectual property rights to all content on the website.
